EXECUTIVE OFFICE, COMMISSIONERS OF the District of Columbia, Washington, June 12, 1901.—Ordered: That section 4, article 2, of the Police Regulations is hereby amended so as to read as follows, viz.: "Section 4. The fire marshal, the chief engineer and the assistant chief engineers of the fire department are and each of them is authorized and empowered, whenever the public safety requires the same, to enter into and upon all buildings and premises, at all reasonable hours, for the purposes of examination; and whenever any of said officers shall find in any building or upon any premises combustible or inflammable material or other conditions in his or their judgment dangerous to the safety of such building or premises, or tikely to obstruct or interfere with the members of the fire department in the event of a fire therein. bla, and unless said order is by them revoked it shall remain in force and be forthwith complied with by said owner or occupant. The fire marshal shall make an immediate investigation as to the presence of combustible material or the existence of inflammable conditions in any building or upon any premises upon complaint of any person having an interest in the said building or premises or property adjacent thereto. Any owner or occupant of any building or premises falling to comply with the orders of the fire marshal, the chief engineer or the assistant chief engineers of the fire department made in compilance with and upon the authority of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less who shall willfully obstruct or interfere with any of said last above mentioned officers in the performance of their above specified duties shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one nor more than forty dollars." HENRY R. F. MACFARLAND, JOHN W. ROSS, LANSING H. BEACH, Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION and Review, Washington, D. C., June 8, 1901.—In accordance with the provisions of section 11 of the act of August 14, 1894, a list will be completed by July 1, 1901, of all real property which shall have become subject to taxation, and which is not now on the tax list, and a value affixed thereon according to the rules prescribed for assessing real estate. This list will include all new structures and additions to or improvements of old attructures of over $500 in value which have not been heretofore assessed. This office should be notified as to the removal or destruction of any structure since the last assessment, in order that the same may be deducted from the valuation as it now stands on the tax list. Complaints as to said assessments can only be heard and determined between the first and third Mondays of July, 1901. H. H. DAR-NEILLE, Chairman.
